

Ketza River Holdings Ltd. is a fully owned subsidiary of Yukon-Nevada Gold Corp., based in Vancouver. The Ketza River Mine is located in the Pelly Mountains close to the headwaters of Cache Creek, a major tributary of the Ketza River. The mine site is approximately five hours by vehicle from Whitehorse. The following position is available:

MECHANIC POSITION

Job Description / Duties:

- Perform routine maintenance work
- Inspect company vehicles
- Inspect equipment
- Replace part and test equipment for proper performance
- Responsible for keeping excavators, backhoe/loaders, graders, bulldozers, front-end loaders in good working order

Requirements / Qualifications:

- Class 5 Driver's license
- Physical fitness and a willingness to work outdoors in all weather conditions
- Good hand / eye coordination
- Certified Heavy Mechanic Equipment Operator
- Knowledgeable in diesel generators
- Must have own tools to bring to mine site

Yukon-Nevada Gold Corp. is a North American gold producer in the business of discovering, developing and operating gold deposits. The Company holds a diverse portfolio of gold, silver, zinc and copper properties in the Yukon Territory and British Columbia in Canada and in Nevada in the United States. The Company's focus has been on the acquisition and development of late stage development and operating properties with gold as the primary target. Continued growth will occur by increasing or initiating production from the Company's existing properties.

Qualified applicants may send their resume, including references, to:

Yukon-Nevada
Gold Corp.

Ketza River Mine
105C Platinum Road
Whitehorse, YT Y1A 5M3
Tel: 867.456.4653
Fax: 867.456.4853
E-mail: ketza_jobs@yngc.ca
Web: www.yukon-nevadagold.com

Date posted: January 17, 2011